FOR AMBASSADOR FROM SECRETARY

*(Taken from Pres.
week end meeting
to 9/6/63 - 2nd 4)*

I have the impression that in a number of Latin American countries friendly leaders are somewhat confused about the posture they should take toward various kinds of relations with the USSR and to a lesser extent its Eastern European satellites. This problem is inevitably interrelated with the question of their attitude toward the Castro regime in Cuba and complicated by the Moscow-Peking argument. Immediately following circular telegram contains a brief summary of US views on these questions which I ~~would~~ would appreciate you and your senior Embassy officers drawing upon as guidance in response to inquiries or other indications of a desire for US views on part senior government officials.
